

Compliance Reporting for IBM Cognos

INTEGRATED REPORT DOCUMENTER™

CAPTURE REPORT DEFINITIONS WITH EASE

With the ever changing landscape of company information as well as the dynamic and always evolving nature of Performance Management environments, clearly documenting your artifacts is an essential component of sustainable applications. Various requirements, both internal and external (SOX, etc.) dictate that audit trails must exist for corporate documents, and your Business Intelligence environment is not excluded from this governance and compliance.

To ease the effort of documenting your BI artifacts, BSP is proud to announce the release of Integrated Report Documenter (IRD). IRD captures vital information from your report definitions so that Report Authors can focus their time on the development lifecycle of company content and not worry about the documentation that must accompany it.

IRD is tightly integrated into IBM Cognos studios so that Authors can document report definitions as often as needed right from within the authoring environment itself.
